On-demand "bureau" payroll – The In-House Option

By choosing our web-delivered software, you benefit from a payroll product with a fast, intuitive user interface, coupled with our centralised superior processing and payment service, if required. This allows you to increase effectiveness and provide a better service to your employees, with minimal change to existing operating procedures.

You retain control of your payroll and its operations in-house, while we take care of your hosted software and IT support requirements, and ensure that the payroll service remains compliant.

It is quick to implement, and very easy for your staff to use, allowing you to start seeing improved efficiency within a matter of months.

The service is supported by our team of payroll specialists and includes legislative advice, Tax Year End support and a programme of updates such as changes in the Budget, Maternity Pay, etc.

“ I have found Ceridian provide a good level of service which is backed up by dedicated support staff with real payroll expertise. As a company they demonstrate a keen interest to forge strong ongoing relationships with their clients. ”
